

The Bullocks

2007 McLAREN VALE SHIRAZ CABERNET SAUVIGNON

The Bullocks is a classic interpretation of the quintessential red blend of Australia. The McLaren Vale region has a long history of growing Shiraz and Cabernet Sauvignon, and blends of the two varieties have made some of the very best red wines in Australia's winemaking history.

The colour is a vivid deep purple with striking bright highlights on the rim. The two grape varieties are clearly evident; the Shiraz (60%) offers blackberry and plums and fills out the palate, the Cabernet (40%) gives lifted dark berries, minty chocolate and an elegant tannin structure which acts as a perfect foil to the fullness of the Shiraz. Raspberry fruit lingers through the velvety and full bodied palate, ably complemented by smoky vanilla oak.

A classic rich eggplant parmigiana would be an ideal match to this wine, though it really is suited to a wide spectrum of foods including roast lamb, beef or pork with plenty of roasted vegetables, or simply some good sausages and better cuts of beef on the BBQ.
